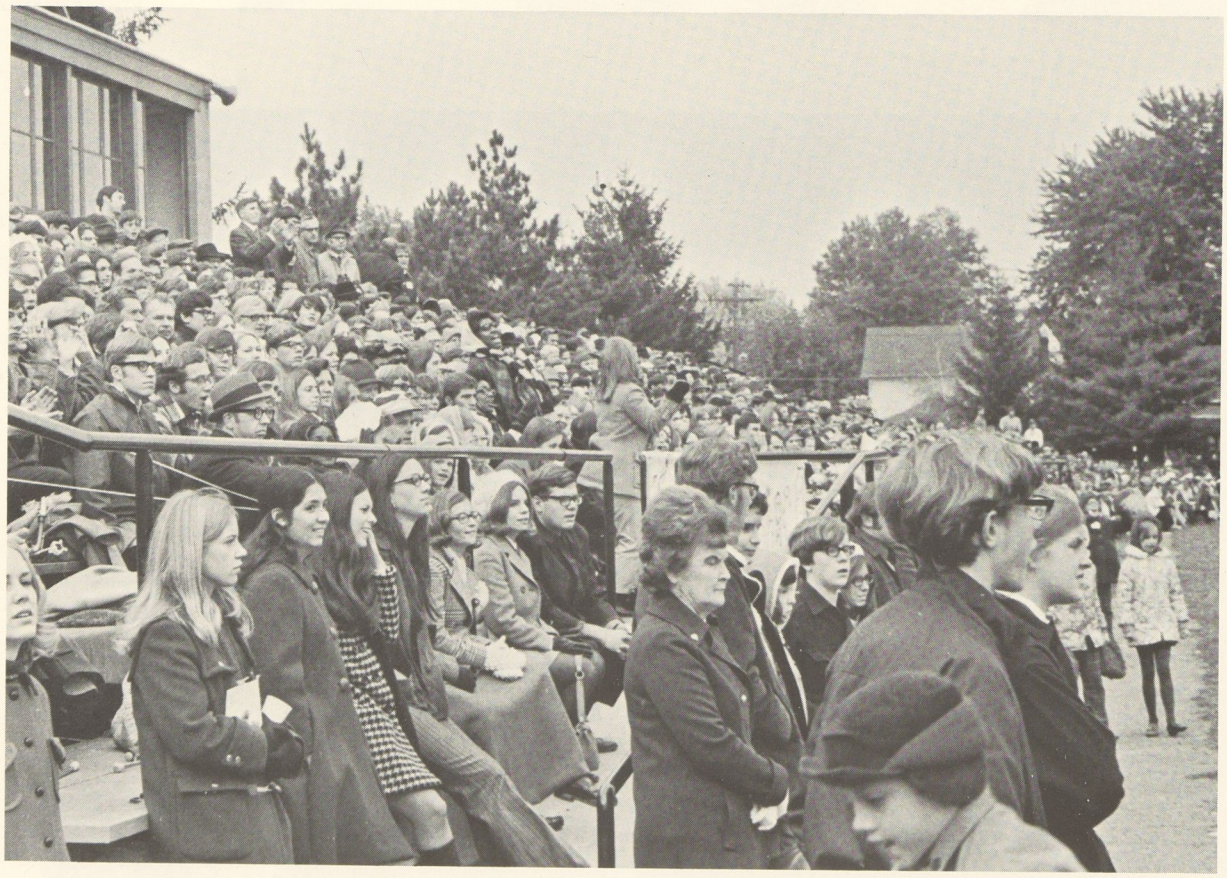
Coach Swinderman with the 1970 Cross Country team

Cross Country



Under the direction of new coach Jack Swinderman, the 1970 Juniata Cross Country team posted a five win and eight loss record. The team was again sparked by the record-breaking captain Dennis Weidler. In the Middle Atlantic Conference competition the Juniata team placed twelfth in the finals with a score of 309. The winning team was Swarthmore with a score of 34. The record does not nearly express the time, effort, and dedication of the members of the team and their coach.

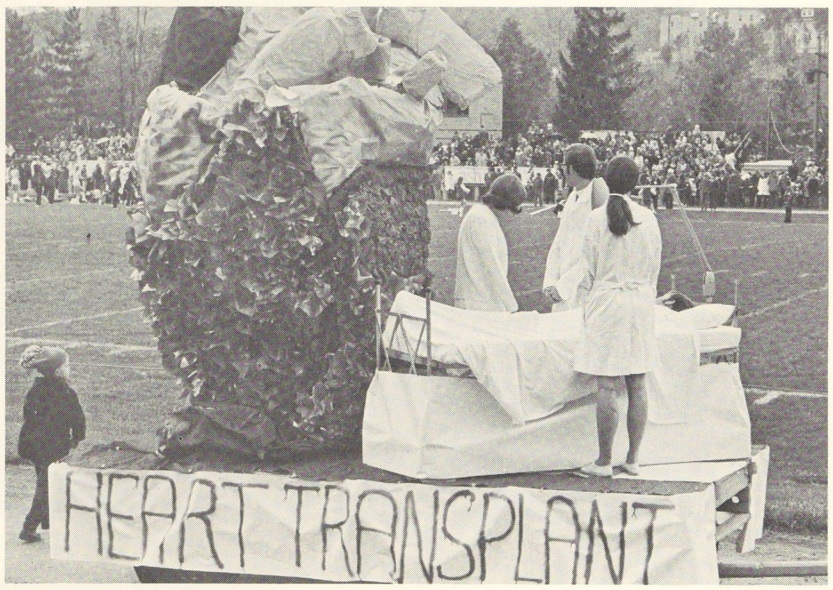
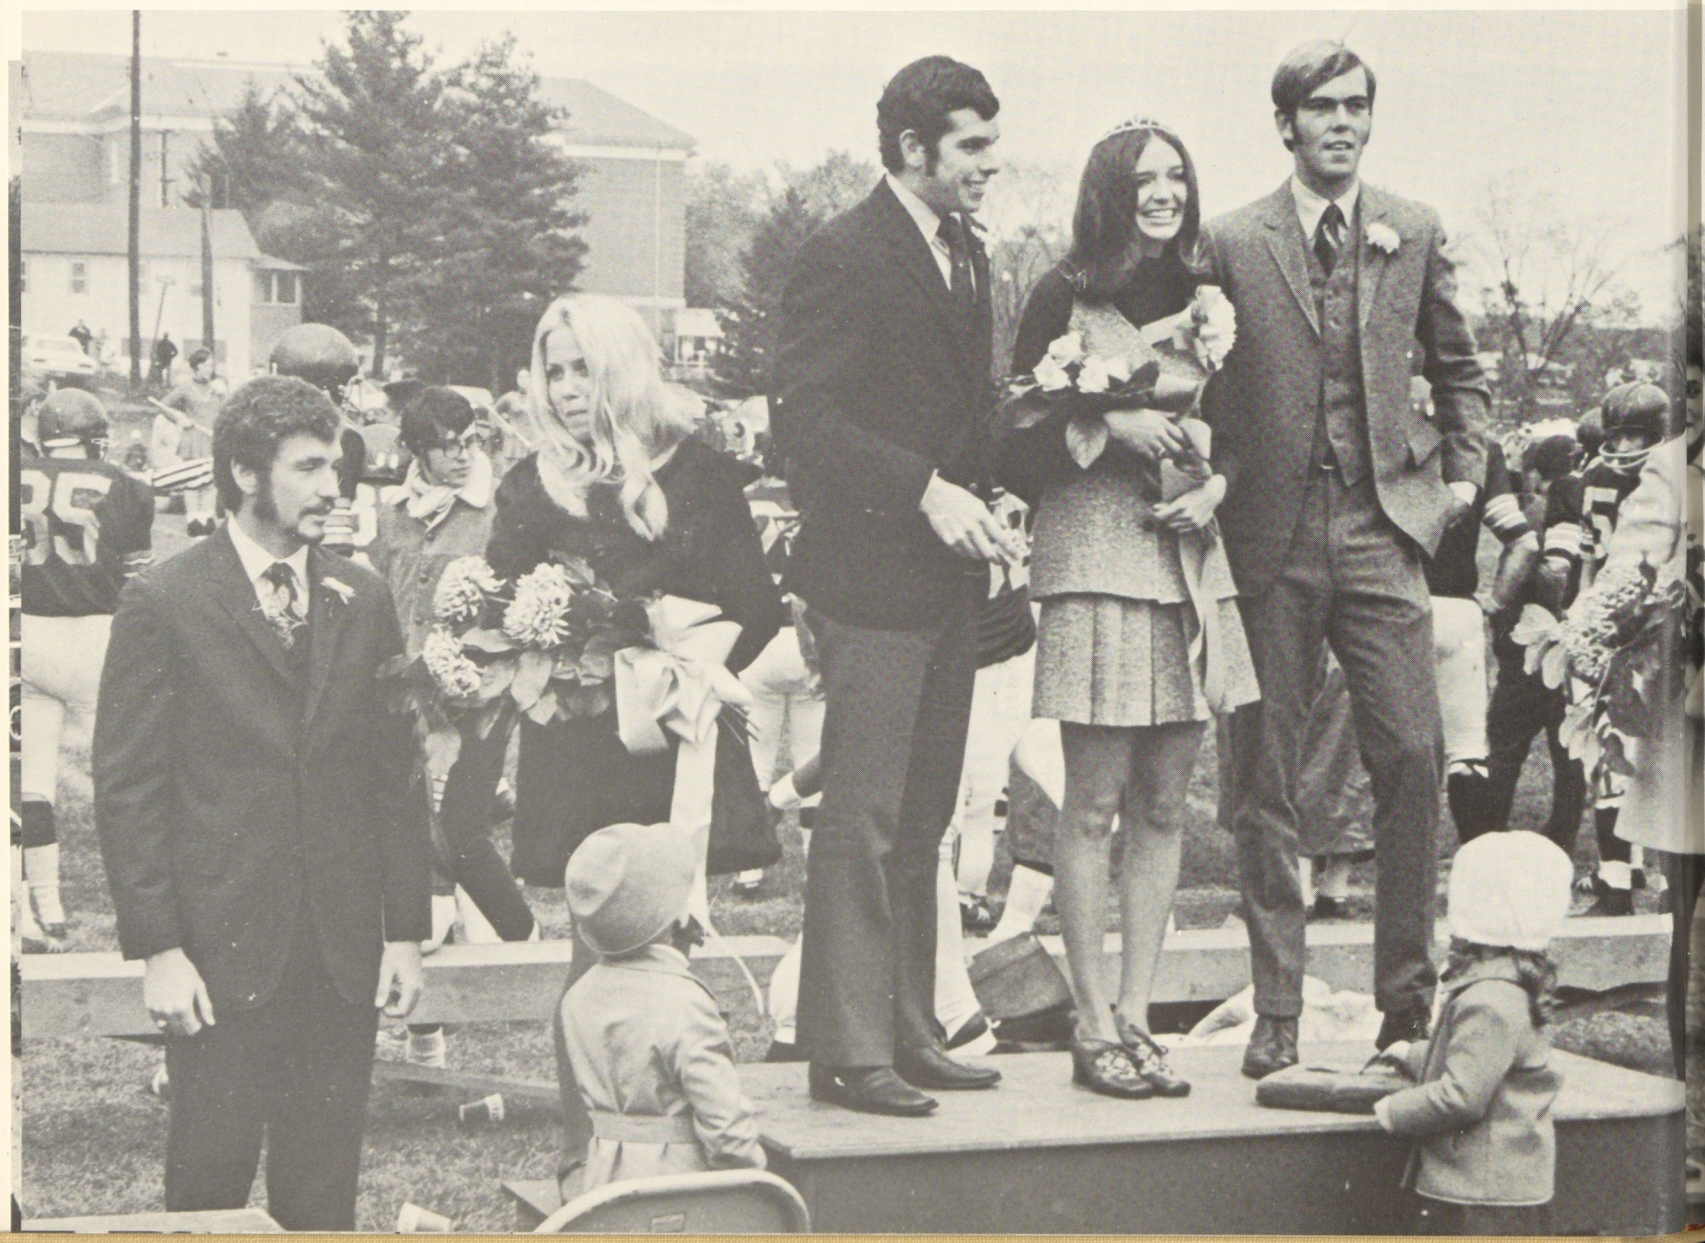
A Panorama of Creativity

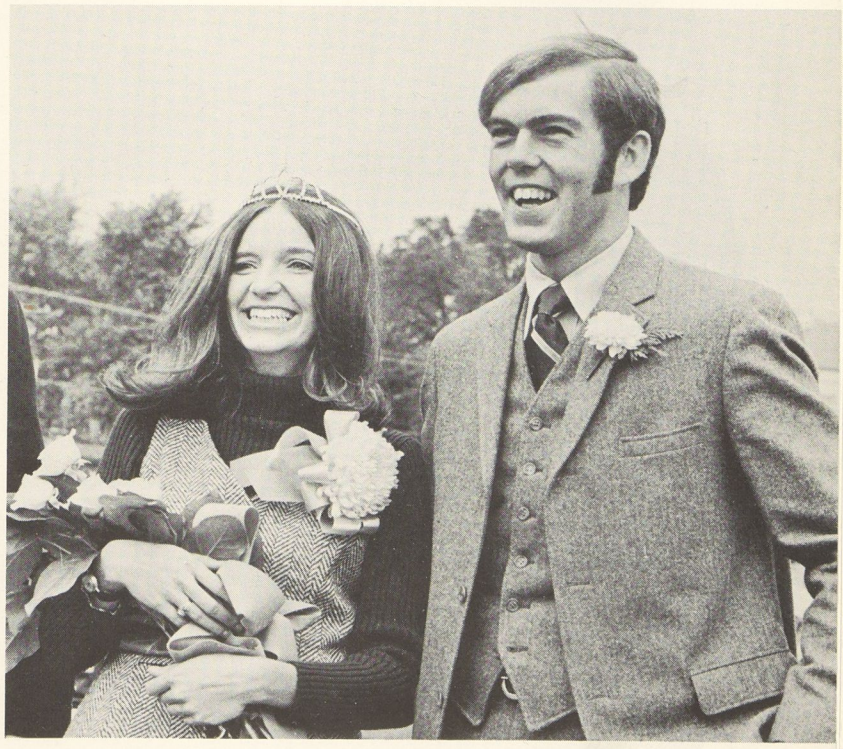


For the Homecoming Floats creativity reigns supreme. Working with a given theme each class expresses it differently. The results range from the fantasy world of Disney to the hopes, dreams, and realities of this decade. In the face of today's problems, the Class of '71 depicted man's quest for peace. Peace, one of this decade's hopes, was the idea of the Sophomore's float where they asked all to "Lend a Hand For Peace." The Juniors preferred to use the theme to "Bridge the Gap" between nations and worlds. The idea that man could reach the other side of the earth or reach the moon was once as fanciful as the world of Disney. There on the float of the Class of '74 were all our familiar friends. The Scalpel and Probe members recreated one of man's major accomplishments, the heart transplant. With a little wood, wire, and paper, ideas were turned into the colorful Homecoming Parade.

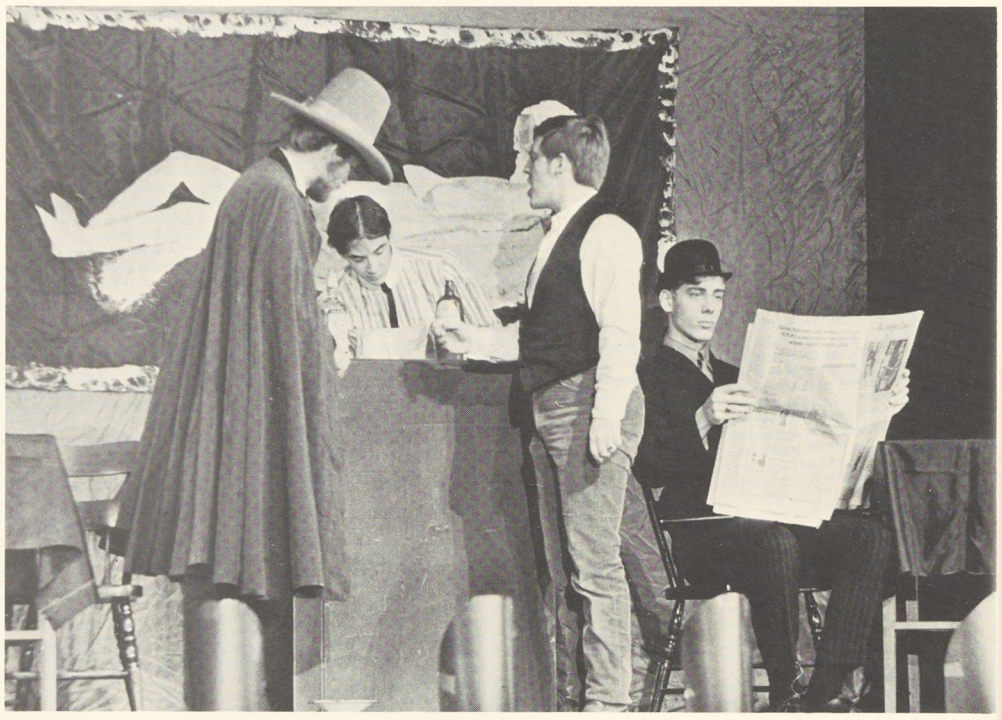


Homecoming 1970

Homecoming began Friday night with the traditional parade through town. Queen of the Parade and of Homecoming Weekend was Judy Turner, Attended by Senior, Sue Moyer and Junior, Beth Wagner. The chilly Saturday halftime was warmed by the crowning of the Queen by Doug Laird.



Showboat



The coming of November brought the docking of Captain Eddy's Maid of the Current, river showboat. Never has such a show tied up at the Oller Hall mooring. Never have we seen such melodrama, such comedy, such dancers. Never has there been a dixie land band quite like the one heard that night. At the close of the play, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," prizes were given out to those lucky folks with winning numbers!

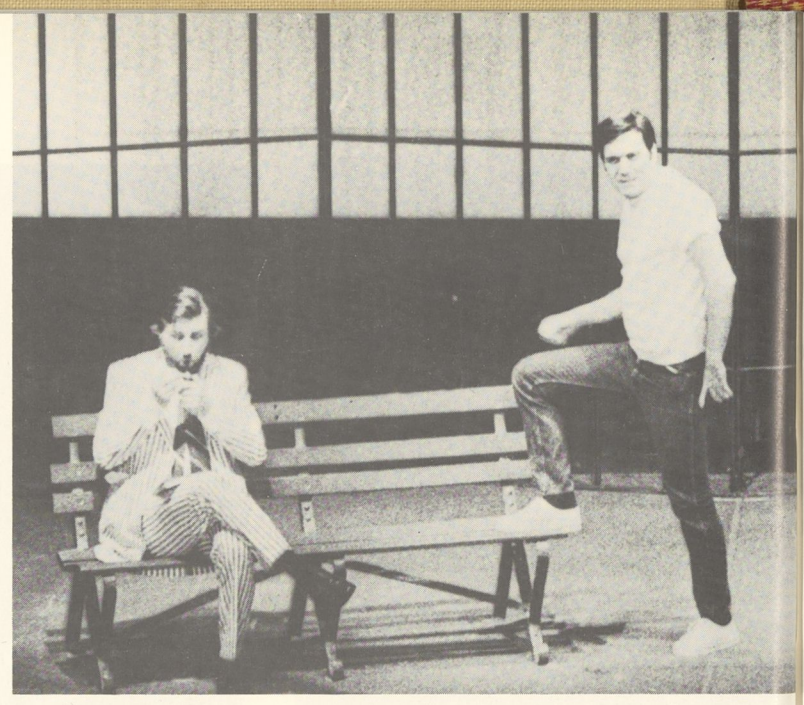
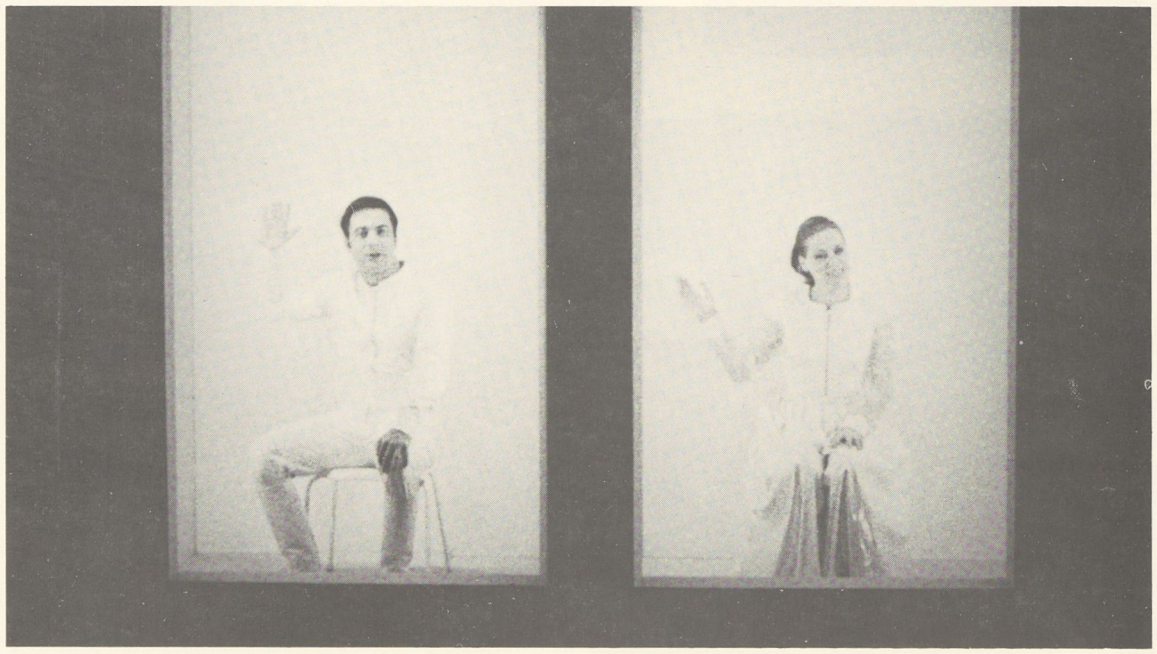
Vanguard Theatre

On Tuesday, November 17, 1970, the Vanguard theatre came to the Juniata College Campus. The evening's entertainment consisted of three plays—The Chairs, a tragic farce by Eugene Ionesco; Zoo Story, a social protest play by Edward Albee; and Camera Obscura, by Robert Patrick, which depicted the frustration of two people who were unable to communicate. The Vanguard Theatre, directed by Marcelle Felper, is a professional, mobile theatre, whose purpose is a committment to education by bringing performance of good classical theatre to schools.





Parents Day is different for each person. For some it means the football game, for others a quiet afternoon with their parents, and for others a relaxing evening listening to the sounds of the Juniata College Concert Choir.

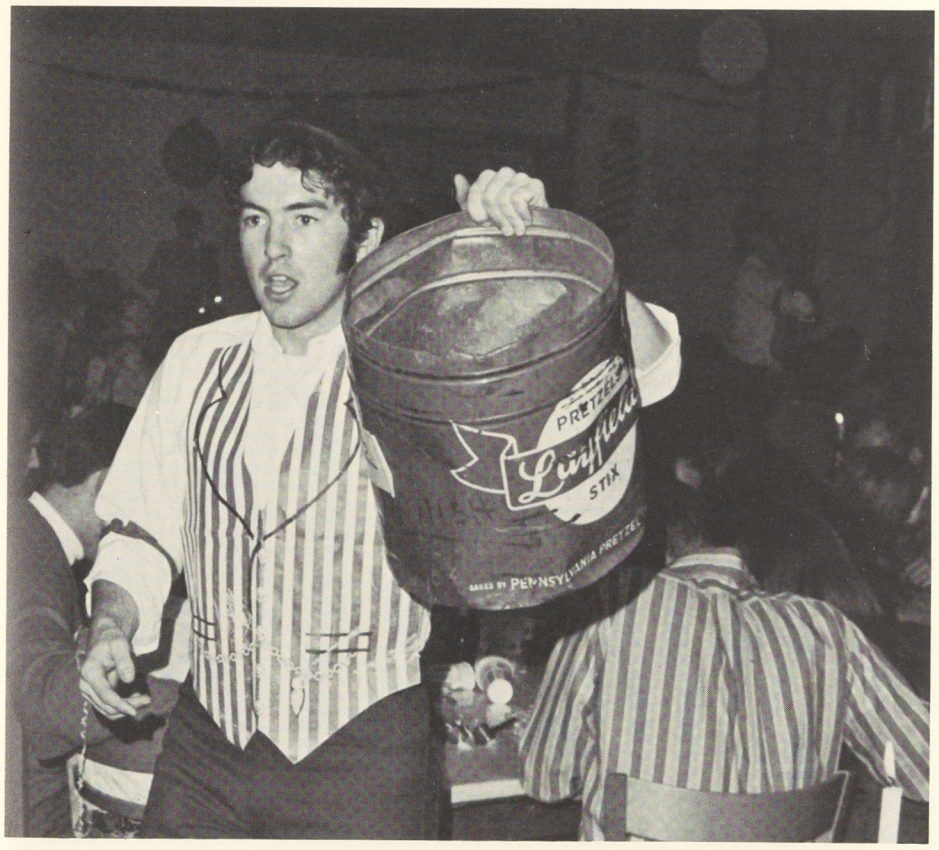
John Denver—a mixture of humor and seriousness. The audience responded to his warmth with laughter, thoughtful silence, and applause, and upon leaving the concert each person felt that he had made a new friend.

Gay Nineties Night



To the tunes of Mitch's Mustache, Lesher Cafeteria was transported through time to the gay times of the 1890's. Entertainment for the evening, provided by Mitch DeVall's Ragtime Band, consisted of old time music and sing-a-longs. Refreshments were supplied by mustached waiters and gaily dressed waitresses in the style typical of the 1890's. A barber shop quartet provided the fill-in entertainment for the band breaks. All-in-all, Gay Nineties Night was an enjoyable and exciting evening for all concerned.

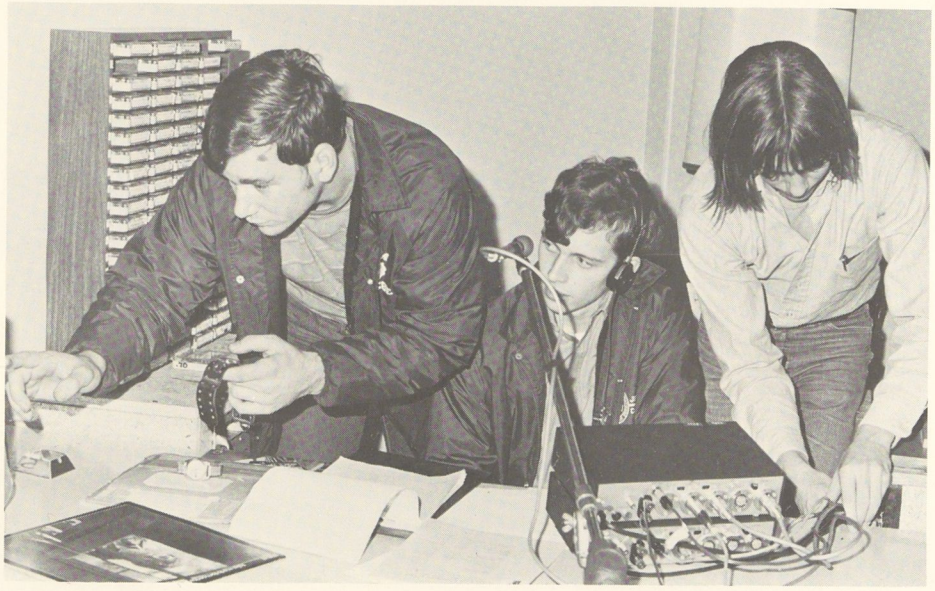
Christmas Weekend



The Yuletide season with its gaiety and spirit of giving had arrived at Juniata. With Ellis Hall decorated by the classes, Christmas did not seem far off. It was the perfect setting for the formal dance and a festive air prevailed. But the traditional festivities did not overshadow the spirit of giving. The weekend was the climax of a week long collection of food and clothing for the town of Asher, Kentucky. To help bring attention to the project, WJC conducted a 60 hour radio marathon. For all it was truly Christmas.

May Day Breakfast

The May Day Breakfast is a time when the women of Juniata are alone in their celebration. Members of the J Club act as waiters, to serve the girls a breakfast unsurpassed through the year. The entertainment for this year's breakfast was provided by Beth Wagner and Harvey Wason, as well as by the Quartet consisting of Bill Leverenz, Philip Woodworth, Steve Woodworth, and Chris Huber. The highpoint of the breakfast is the revelation of the Queen and her court. As the Queen, Ann Witt, received her flowers the Quartet serenaded her with a medley of whimsical songs.

Flower Girl—Anne Russey, Crown Bearer—Scott Ulrich.

The Queen, Ann Witt, is crowned by the Prince, Mike Long.

"The Medium"

"The Medium" an opera composed by Gian Carlo Menotti in 1945, was performed by the Opera Workshop for Commencement Weekend. A play of ideas, "The Medium" describes the tragedy of a woman trapped between the world of reality and the world of the supernatural. Not truly believing in the supernatural, Baba, the medium, is unnerved by an event she cannot explain. Almost insane with fear, she strikes out against those around her. Caught within her tragedy are her daughter, Monica, and Toby, an adopted mute.

Mrs. Gobineau—Barbara Hess, Mr. Gobineau—Steve Woodworth, Mrs. Nolan—Lynne Smires, Baba—Marjorie Hirsch, Monica—Anne Hench, Toby—Glenn Billingsley.
